Vikramaditya Motwane's next starring Harshvardhan Kapoor to release on 25th May 2018

Mumbai, November 10, 2017: Anil D. Ambani led Reliance Entertainment and Eros International have come together to release Phantom Films' next untitled production on 25th May 2018. The film is directed by Vikramaditya Motwane and stars Harshvardhan Kapoor in the lead.

The film, a vigilante drama set in Mumbai, is the story of one young man's quest for revenge, and the discovery that he's destined for much bigger things.

The film promises some intense action and well-crafted hand combat fights, which have been designed by an international crew, and is shot at some never before seen locations in and around Mumbai. It has music by Amit Trivedi & lyrics by Amitabh Bhattacharya, who have worked with Motwane on his earlier films Lootera and Udaan.

Motwane's last release, Trapped, won huge acclaim and a good box office run apart from starting Rajkummar Rao's dream run this year.

Motwane, who has been busy with shooting Netflix's first India Original series Sacred Games, says, "The story explores love, friendship, anger and heroism and its relevance in today's times. It's been with me for a very long time and I'm delighted at the way it's turned out. The action sequences are awesome and I can't wait for the audience to see it."

Shibasish Sarkar, COO Reliance Entertainment said, "We are happy to collaborate with Phantom Films for this film which will resonate with public at large in a unique way. Vikramaditya Motwane's films have always attained great critical acclaim and we are confident that this film will not only attain the acclaim but will be successful at the box office".

Says Sunil Lulla, Managing Director, Eros International Media Ltd, "We are looking forward to creating a new milestone in this space with the vigilante drama. This film promises to be a mass entertainer with high doses of power packed action".

The film is to set to excite the audience on the big screens on 25th May 2018.
